Shaftesbury Abbey

The excavated foundations of the first Benedictine community for women and England's largest nunnery, founded in 888, lie in a peaceful walled garden, which has been replanted with a medieval orchard and a variety of Anglo-Saxon herbs.

The site is now owned by a trust of volunteers. The new museum has full accreditation from the Museums Libraries and Archives Council.

Why join as a Friend?

As well as free entry to the site, Friends enjoy the opportunity to meet like-minded members at private views and a summer garden party.

They also receive regular news about the Abbey and background articles of historical and archaeological interest.

Why we need Friends

Shaftesbury Abbey Museum & Garden has gained a reputation as one of the area's prime small attractions, and more than 120,000 visitors have passed through our gates over the last ten years.

The Abbey is a self-supporting charity run by volunteers, which relies on the income generated by admission fees and events, and profits from the shop, as well as the support of our Friends.

Becoming a Friend

Becoming a Friend of Shaftesbury Abbey is open to everyone and membership runs from January to the end of December.

There are four categories of membership: Life, Individual, Joint (two people in the same household) and Family (two adults plus their children).
